DAWNING OF A NEW ERA

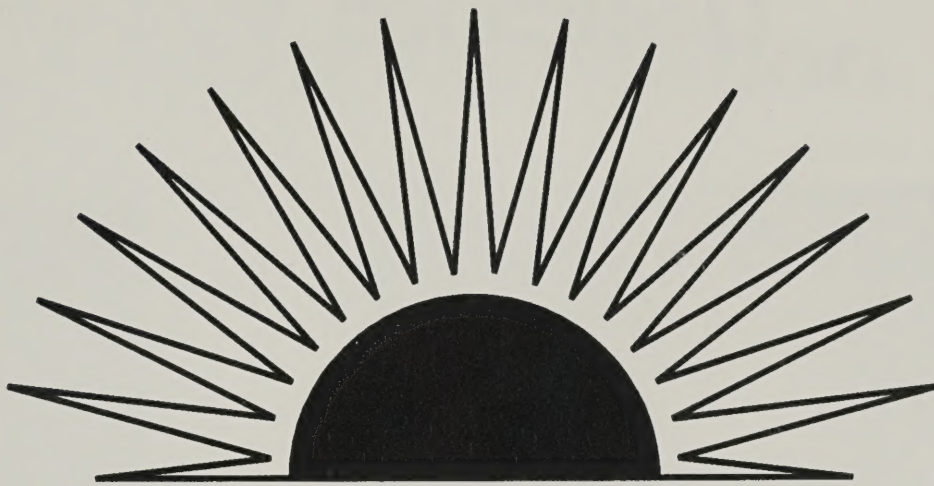

Parry McCluer High School

2329 Chestnut Avenue
Buena Vista, Va. 24416

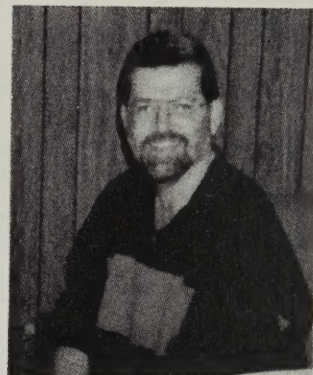

Dedication

Mr. Dick Cash

Mrs. Mickey Morris

Mr. Randy Higginbotham

So Much

You have given us love and tenderness, patience and attention
You have given us knowledge and experience, hopes and dreams.
You have given yourself,
You have given so much.

You have given us choices and confidence, happiness and excitement.
You have given us maturity and insight, compassion and energy.
You have given us your all,
You have given so much.

You have taught us to stand tall and be proud, look forward and reach high.
You have shown us the future and taught us the past, shared our triumphs and suffered our defeats.
You have given us everything,
You have given so much.

Always Here

Here I am,
Smiling my smile,
The one you haven't seen
In quite a while

You'll see my happiness,
When the sun comes out,
You'll feel the rain,
When I start to pout.

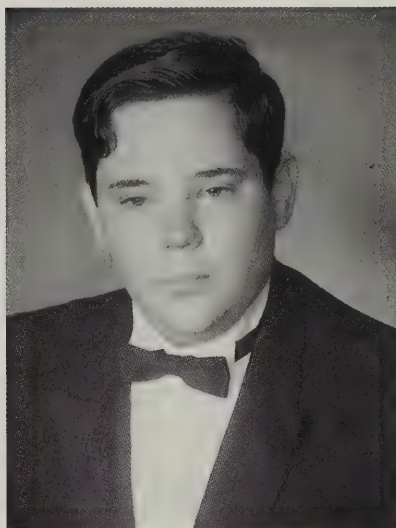

You'll feel my breath,
When the wind starts to blow,
You'll hear my voice,
When it begins to snow.

Can't you see,
That I'm always here,
Look past your sadness
Fight away your tears.

Hold out your hand,
And open your heart,
Memories are forever,
Even though we're apart.

So always remember,
I'm just a prayer away,
And we'll meet again soon,
On that very special day.

Homecoming 1999 was a week filled with spirit and excitement. Many students participated in Spirit Week by dressing up to show their support. Also, each class came together to decorate a part of the hall. The junior class won the vote for the best hall.

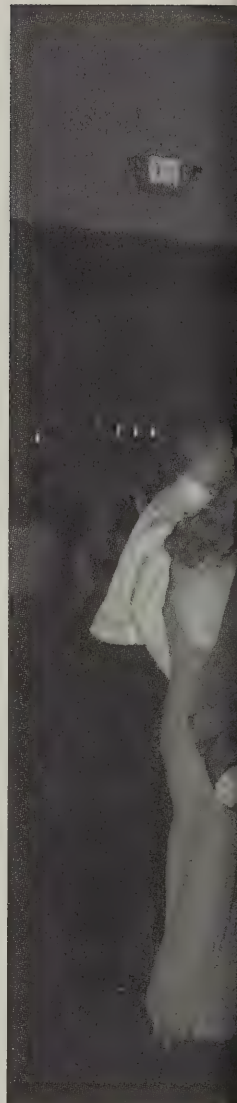

Home-coming

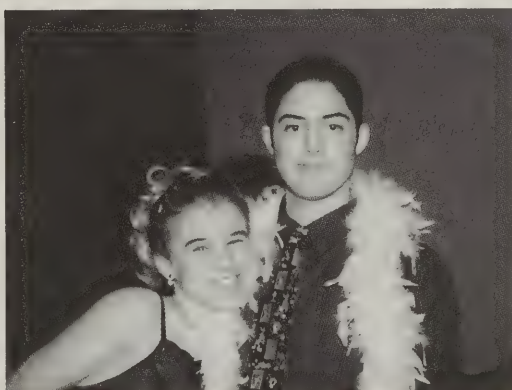

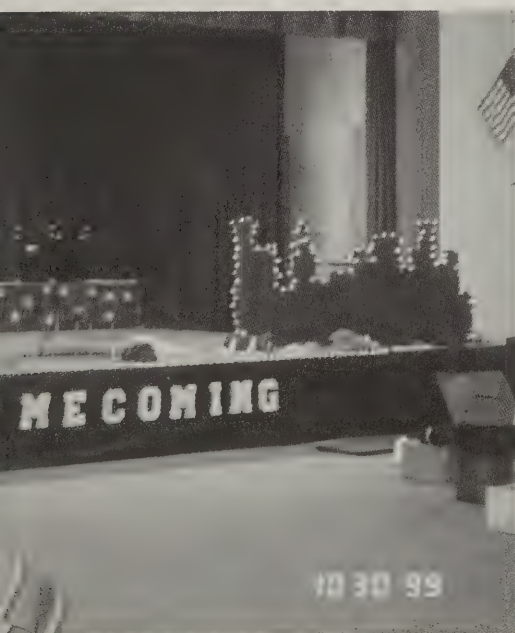

Everyone is having fun at the homecoming dance.

John Ross and his date are enjoying the dance.

On Friday the cheerleaders hosted a pep rally. Of course, the seniors had the most spirit and won the pep stick. Next was the homecoming game. The Blues had a strong first half. During half-time, David Irvine was crowned Homecoming King and Carrie Broughman was crowned Homecoming Queen. The Fighting Blues ended the game by beating Craig County. Saturday night was filled with dancing, a perfect conclusion to a wonderful homecoming with memories that last a lifetime.

Graduation

Parry McCluer High School Class of 2000

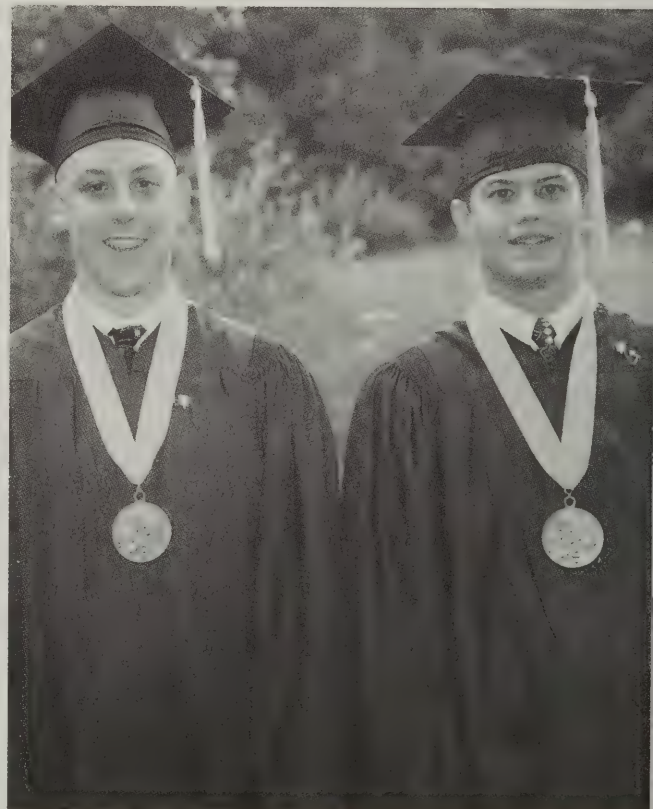

June 2, 2000 was a day to remember. On a hot Friday evening, friends and family members of the class of 2000 gathered at Glen Maury Park while seniors, anxious for the commencement service to begin, lined up backstage. They marched in, girls in white caps and gowns, boys in blue, while the PMHS band played. The first speech was delivered by salutatorian Nelson Fox, who spoke of memories made through the years spent together. Senior class president and valedictorian David Irvine gave a memorable speech which assured graduates that they would excel in the competitive world awaiting them after leaving high school. Graduates and guests were also treated to a song "Green Day" by seniors Laura Benavitch and Liz Olmo. Finally, students received their diplomas and Mr. Downs then announced the class of 2000 officially graduated from Parry McCluer High School.

Seniors will remember a hot June evening for a final gathering of friends made at PMHS.

Carrie Broughman

Seems like only yesterday you were a little girl. Now look at you—all grown up and ready to face the world. We are very proud of you. Love always, Mama and Gary

Jeffrey Polly

Jeffrey, we are so proud of you graduating. Getting through school and doing so well through all the years is such a big accomplishment. To have such a wonderful son is God's gift to us and we are so thankful. We know you will do well at whatever you set out to do. We love you more than words can say.

Mom (Lisa) and Dad (Chris)

DESIRATA

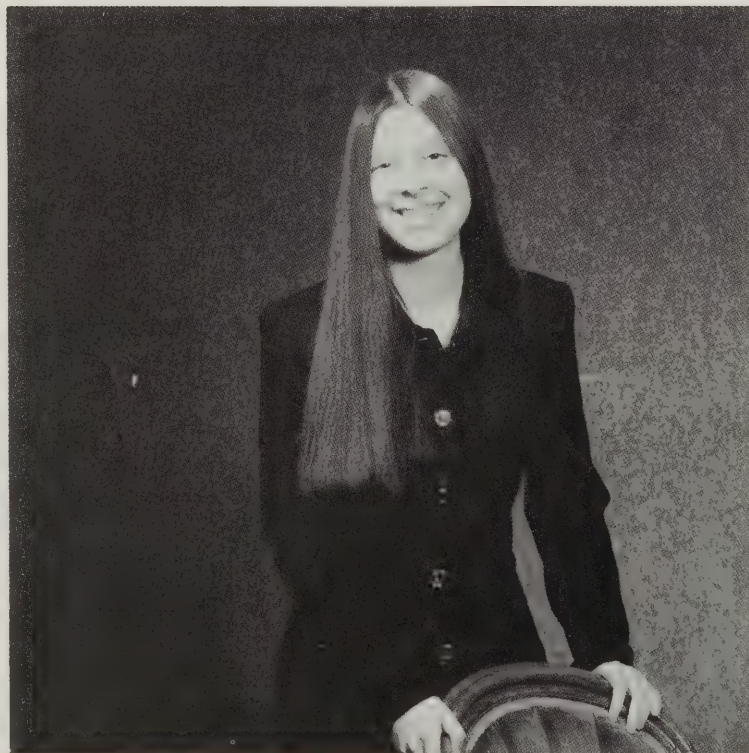

Go placidly among the noise and haste, and remember what peace there is may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; for they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, for they are a vexation to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter for there will always be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years; gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not stress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars, you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its shame, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

Love,
Mom, Sis, Granny, and Paw Paw

In Appreciation

To those students, faculty, and community members who donated pictures and who gave extra time for the production of this book, special thanks are given. These include hard-working editor Kirkland Wohlrab, Whitney Bice, Nellie Fox, David Irvine, Kim Arthur, Annie Garrett, Mrs. Frazier, Mr. Downs, and Pat Gibson.

Nellie, David, and Whitney are busily cropping photos, writing captions, and proofing pages.

Kirkland works on page design with Nellie and David.

Dear Bradley,

We are so proud of your accomplishments and have enjoyed watching you grow from a little boy into a fine young man. Congratulations to a fine son and a great “Big” brother.

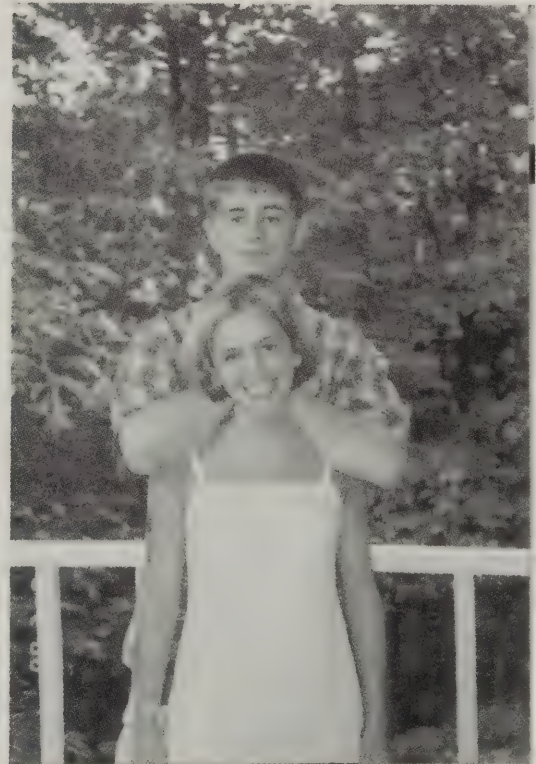

We love you very much.

John Thomas Huffman

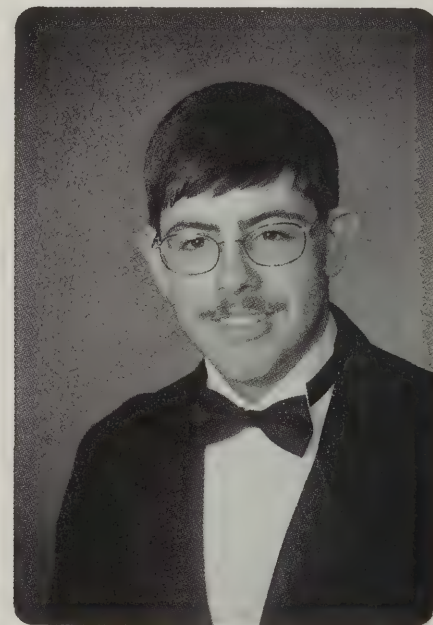

Son, Brother, Friend

John loved to hunt with his dad and friends.

David, T.J., John, Carrie, Laura, and Whitney work on the Homecoming senior float at John's house.

So proud to be a member of the class of 2000.

John loved his school, his friends, hunting, Mr. Lockett's class, HVAC, and his FOD truck. Never forget his kind heart and quick smile. Never forget John and T.J. Good friends forever.

We'll love you forever,

Mom, Daddy, and Frankie

Our "Little Man"

*Our "Little Man"
Then*

What happened to our "little man"? The one with the big brown eyes and black hair sticking straight up. The one who use to like to have his foot rubbed while taking his bottle. The one who was fascinated with sirens and whistles. The one who played police or fireman on the schools playground. The one who loved scouts, camping, fishing, hunting and riding his bike. And let's not forget your love for bluegrass music. What happened to our "little man"? You know the one who caused the older generation to light up when he entered the room. The one who devoted his time and energy to serve his community as a junior member of the rescue squad and who passed his EMT exam at 17. What did happened to our "little man"? Well, our "little man" grew up. You became a very mature young man who loves life in general. One who still loves the sirens and is dedicated to serving others. One who continues to love the outdoors and all it has to offer. One who loves bluegrass and pick'n a guitar. One who has made his mom and dad very proud of him because of who he is. Our son, our "little man".

We love you Derek and we want you to know that we will always be here for you. We will stand behind you in whatever direction your life may take you. We wish you the best in your accomplishments and remember you will always be our "little man".

*Our "Little Man"
Now*

May God Bless You Always Love Mom and Dad

To our wonderful daughter Kirkland Victoria Wohlrab...

To laugh often and much;
To win the respect of intelligent people
and the affection of children;
To earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends;
To appreciate beauty, to find
the best in others
To leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition;
To know even one life
has breathed easier because you have lived.

This is to have succeeded.

We are very proud of all your accomplishments and we look forward to all your achievements yet to come.

With much love,
Mama and Keith

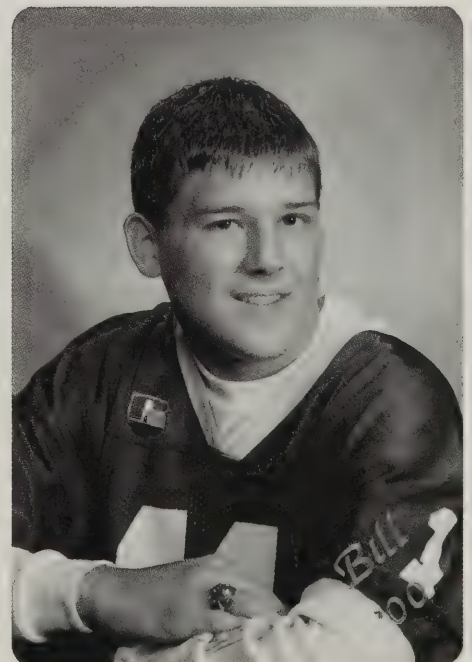

Bill Southers

Bill, I sit here and a million things and thoughts go through my mind. I can see the night I held you for the first time. When I look at you 17 years later, it's amazing to see the things you have accomplished and how handsome you are, just like the day you were born! I hope you know how very, very proud we are of you. Don't ever forget that you can do and be whatever you want. Make your dreams come true, not for me but for yourself. Look what you have done, and you can accomplish more. Just think and be more determined than ever to get your dreams. Don't ever let anyone get in your way. I will always be here if you need me. I just want you to be happy and safe and to have a good future.

Love you always,

Mom & Tommy

NELSON DAVID FOX, JR.

Dear Nelson,

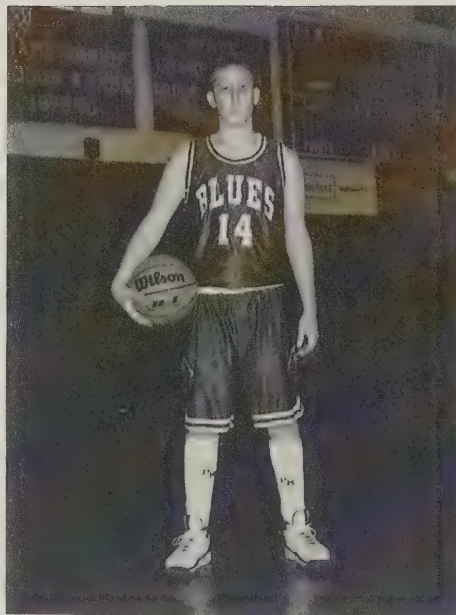

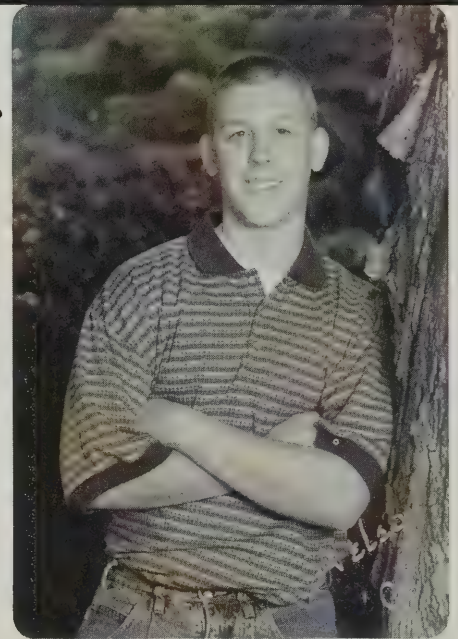

*Since we first beheld you
You have been our pride and joy.
And God had truly blessed us
When He made you our own boy.*

*You have always amazed us
With all your special ways.
Our love for you is boundless
And grows more every day.*

*Your commitment and persistence,
The ready smile on your face
Will help you as you go forward
To make the world a better place.*

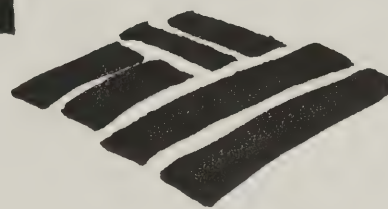

*Whatever you may undertake
Your efforts will be true.
You'll always be our elder son,
We're so very proud of you.*

*Love,
Dad, Mom, and Tom*
